

GROWS BETTER FOR SAUNDERS

His Majority Over Two Hundred, and Full Official Count May Increase It.

A MARGIN OF TWO HUNDRED

Abundant Precaution Prevents Report of Board of Canvassers.

The delay of the official returns in Henry and Pittsylvania counties, due to the abundant precaution exercised by the boards of canvassers of those counties, in connection with small irregularities in some precincts, makes it impossible to determine the exact majority of Judge E. W. Saunders, the Democratic Congressman-elect, and accounts for slight discrepancies in calculations from different sources. Revised figures are favorable to Saunders, and give him a small, though safe, margin. The most reliable figures received up to last night are as follows:

Counties	For Saunders	For Simmons
Pittsylvania (unofficial)	1,764	—
Henry (unofficial)	525	—
Franklin (unofficial)	239	—
Floyd	473	—
Carroll	475	—
Grayson	239	—
Patrick	239	—
Total	3,642	1,431

That there will be a contest made by the Republican candidate is also almost certain. If for no other reason than to obtain the $2,000 allowed by Congress to such contestants. The only danger that the Democrats anticipate is that in this contest minor irregularities may be found which will result in the throwing out of some of the precincts, but it is believed that Judge Saunders is undoubtedly elected by a majority which will amount to between 150 and 200.

NO FEAR NOW.

Report to The Times-Dispatch. — The boards of canvassers of the various counties in the Fifth District have for the most part postponed giving out any figures from the recent contest between Judge E. W. Saunders and Dr. S. P. Simmons for Congress on account of minor irregularities in the returns from some of the precincts, but it is believed that Judge Saunders is undoubtedly elected by a majority which will amount to between 150 and 200.

The latest reports have set at rest any fear upon the part of the Democratic leaders that Judge Saunders was defeated at the polls.

The following are the most authentic figures that can be obtained from the various counties to-night:

Counties	For Saunders	For Simmons
Grayson	239	—
Pittsylvania	1,764	—
Henry	525	—
Franklin	239	—
Floyd	473	—
Carroll	475	—
Grayson	239	—
Patrick	239	—
Total	3,642	1,431

GIRLS SHOOK HANDS WITH THE PRESIDENT

Special to The Times-Dispatch.

The following distinguished party of "girls," with George Washington as chairman, went to North Garden Sunday with the hope of seeing the President. Misses Emma A. King, Rena Roseman, M. P. Berkeley, Roberta Fulton, Cornelia E. Smith and Mrs. R. C. C. When the party reached North Garden they saw the President's private car, which had them waiting. Through the courtesy of the President's private secretary, they were shown through the President's car, the presidential party arrived. The Miller School party gave them the Clatskanie salute, and it was returned very cordially. The President shook hands with the entire party. They invited the President to the Miller School for Thanksgiving, and he replied that he would be delighted. He also expressed a desire to see the school. The school hopes to be honored by his presence some day.

CROSSETT SHOE

MAKES LIFE'S WALK EASY

Thrill in buying shoes is not shown by how little you spend, but how much you get for what you do spend.

A dollar in shoe making is but a dollar to all. Materials have gone up—to everybody. At old prices quality can't be as good. At its present price a Crossett is what it has always been—durable—comfortable—stylish.

Commonwealth's Attorney Gregory, name of the white boy who is implicated in the confession made by Johnson is not yet made public. No warrant has been issued for his arrest, and it is probable that nothing will come of the affair. Johnson, it is believed, if the story is true, is the money that the white boy took from the cash register, on account of the prominence of the family of the white boy, great interest is attracted to the case.

Will Winter Here.

The Hatch Carnival Shows, which have been here all of this week, will winter in Manchester. Mr. Hatch is now negotiating for quarters for the paraphernalia of the shows. The different performers will leave at the end of the week to fill other engagements, but Mr. Hatch will be in the city for several weeks until he can arrange all details about winter quarters. The animals will be taken care of.
